Institutions aren't war zones: IIT-M faculty

DEPENDENT
EB. 23

IIT-Madras faculty expressed concern over the higher education system, saying that the country is becoming a war zone in the name of disrespectful letter to the President, the 56 faculty members said there is a need to save educational institutions from the scholarship of abuse and hate and sought his intervention. The faculty said they felt concerned about the situation where institutions of higher learning were being converted into war zones.

Rahul face of negative politics: BJP

AGE CORRESPONDENT
NEW DELHI, FEB. 23

Hitting back at Congress vice-president Rahul Gandhi over his charge that the Narendra Modi government was crushing dissent in universities, the BJP Tuesday said Mr Gandhi has become the "biggest face of negative politics". Insisting that all parties conspiring against the Modi government have joined hands with the Congress, BJP national secretary Shrikant Sharma said it would have been better had the Congress V.P. gone to the JNU to ask students, who are accused in a sedition case, to surrender.

"Instead, he goes to Jantar Mantar to add fuel to the fire. We condemn his remarks in the strongest terms. If somebody has by various countries world between 2000. Most of the agreements India are with countries in the East Asian region." The partnering country element can avail itself of tariff agreed to by (of countries) amongst others, it is not being util-ness or because of the exporter's dependence on the clearing agent," Kapoor said. He urged the participants to look up the Indian trade portal and avail the concessional tariff.

"Everyone can access the site for free, know the countries which are partners to the various trade agreement inked with India and we are concerned that while we have the membership of these clubs, we have not taken advantage of it," he said and admitted to the huge gap in data collection on export under FTA.

Justifying the reluctance/delay in signing the FTA with the European Union, he said "the EU has strength in areas such as wine, auwarus getting the best standard, Kapoor said.

Speaking on the sidelines, he said the Commerce Ministry is analysing how the Trans Pacific Partnership would impact India. "The Centre for WTO studies is now doing a study on this. Signing the TPP would take another year or two."
